Dear Dr. Varshney,

I am pleased to inform you that your manuscript has been deemed suitable for publication in PLOS ONE. Congratulations!

Your manuscript will now be passed on to our Production staff, who will check your files for correct formatting and completeness. During this process, you may be contacted to make necessary alterations to your manuscript, though not all manuscripts require this.

Please check the accepted PDF of your manuscript very closely. THERE IS NO AUTHOR PROOFING. You should consider the accepted PDF or any corrected files you upload during the production process as equivalent to a production proof. The text you supply will be faithfully represented in your published manuscript exactly as you supply it.

Now that your manuscript has been accepted, please log into Editorial Manager at <http://www.editorialmanager.com/pone>, click the "Update My Information" link at the top of the page, and update your user information to ensure an efficient production and billing process. If you have any questions about billing, please contact authorbilling@plos.org.

If you or your institution will be preparing press materials for this manuscript, you must inform our press team in advance. Your manuscript will remain under a strict press embargo until the publication date and time. For more information please contact onepress@plos.org.

Please contact one_production@plos.org if you have any other questions or concerns. Thank you for submitting your work to PLOS ONE.

With kind regards,
