

From: Scott Allen Jackson
To: Andreas Graner
Subject: Re: Pag and skiing
Date: Thursday, December 11, 2014 8:24:25 PM

I figured that might happen:) We need to make plans further out in the future. See you in San Diego.
scott

> On Dec 11, 2014, at 11:59 AM, Andreas Graner <graner@ipk-gatersleben.de> wrote:

>

> Dear Scott,

>

> as usual, my calendar started to fill up and I need to keep my stint at DivSeek and PAG as short as possible, i.e. I booked the return flight for Wednesday already. It seem that skiing in America will remain in a formative project phase.

>

> Actually I plan to go skiing in Austria by the end of next week. However, snow conditions are paltry. Up to now, temperatures have been to high, even for machine snow.

>

>

> Best

>

> Andreas

>

>

> -----

> Prof. Dr. Andreas Graner

> Geschäftsführender Direktor

> Leibniz-Institut für Pflanzengenetik und Kulturpflanzenforschung (IPK)

> Corrensstr. 3

> 06466 Stadt Seeland OT Gatersleben

> Tel. 0394825219

>

>

> -----Ursprüngliche Nachricht-----

> Von: Scott Allen Jackson [<mailto:sjackson@uga.edu>]

> Gesendet: Donnerstag, 11. Dezember 2014 04:37

> An: Andreas Graner

> Betreff: Pag and skiing

>

> Andreas. Are you still interestd to try to go skiing after PAG?

>

> Scott

>

> Sent from my iPhone