Rajeev, sounds like fun and I wish I could go. However, Monday evening is our annual soybean dinner. -scott

Dear Scott,

I hope that you are set to visit San Diego to participate in PAG Conference. Five more colleagues from our group are also participating in this conference. I am planning to have dinner with these colleagues and some key collaborators and friends like you for one evening in San Diego. Tentatively we are planning on January 12, 2015 (MONDAY). Hope that you should be able to join us for this dinner. Please block your calendar for 19:00 hrs on January 12, 2015 and confirm me with cc to Abhishek.

The venue of the dinner would be intimated later.

Looking forward to seeing you in San Diego.

Many thanks and kind regards

Rajeev
