AVP Conference – Panel discussion broadcast tonight – 8pm ABC Radio National

Dear Karl,

We are pleased to inform you that the final panel discussion, held on 4 May during AVPC2017, is being broadcast tonight from 8pm AEST on ABC Radio National.

Not sure on the ABC Radio National frequency in your region? Use the ABC's Frequency Finder here.

If you cannot listen live, a link to the program will be available from Tuesday morning here.

The panel discussion was certainly one of the highlights of AVPC2017 and a great way to wrap up three days of thought provoking presentations.

The panel was moderated by Big Ideas host and producer Paul Barclay and panellists include:

- Dr Edy MacDonald - Manager of Social Science, New Zealand Department of Conservation
- Dr Bidha Jones - Chief Science and Strategy Officer, RSPCA Australia
- Dr Mark Tizard - Senior Research Scientist, Genome Engineering, Health & Biosecurity, at CSIRO
- Dr Karl Campbell - Program Director of Island Conservation, Galapagos Islands

Listen live tonight from 8pm - just turn your radio dials to ABC Radio National in your region. For more information visit the ABC Radio National Big Ideas program website here.

We hope you enjoy!

Kind regards
