Subject: Draft stakeholder interview list for comment

Royden,

We have a GoogleDoc to share with the GBIRD research team that describes our criteria for selecting stakeholders to interview as part of our landscape analysis, as well as a draft list of those we plan to interview. As you suggested, I made the GoogleDoc viewable by anyone who has the link: <https://docs.google.com/document/d/1fVgDoh3GkMt2wPMVfnjzI73rrbgrEiHrSSkiiD278SI/edit?usp=sharing>

We would like feedback on the document [...]. Perhaps we can give them until 12pm EST on January 26 to provide feedback? This deadline corresponds with a scheduled meeting of the social engagement team.

In the meantime, we will be doing some pilot interviews of specific members of the GBIRD team to test out our interview protocol. Other interviews will be conducted in February.

Will you please share with the group - I didn't want to leave off anyone and wasn't sure whether it's better to use a listserv or to reply-all to a recent email.

Thanks,
Jason Delborne (NCSU)
Mahmud Farooque (ASU)
Julie Shapiro (Keystone Policy Center)
